ARMENIAN MASSACRES.

It Is Estimated That Fully 40,000 Were Slain by Turks.

THE PROPERTY LOSS $50,000,000.

The Loss of Life Will be Increased by Starvation This Winter—Peculiar Reply of Turkish Authorities to a Private Request for Information.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 27.—Now that matters seem to be quieting down again here and in the Asiatic provinces, people are beginning to form estimates of the amount of damage done and the number of lives lost during the recent disturbances. Well informed Armenians estimate the losses through the events which have just taken place in Anatolia alone at $50,000,000 and the number of victims at 40,000. Of course these are Armenian estimates but there seems good reasons for believing that the property destroyed, the number of lives sacrificed and the terrible outrages committed are far beyond anything hitherto estimated or described.

But this is not all. People competent to pronounce an opinion upon this subject say that with the coming of winter there will be very many more deaths from exposure and famine, and that even the prompt collection of relief funds, food and clothing cannot avert much loss of life and great suffering. Famine is threatened in a number of districts, and there seems to be no way of preventing it.

Details have been received here regarding the outbreak at Marash on Nov. 19, showing that the massacres were of the most terrible nature. The missionaries declare that many hundreds of people were killed and that all the school buildings were burned to the ground by the rioters.

A telegram has been received here from Kharput explaining the manner in which the recent destruction of American mission property occurred. The American mission buildings at Kharput were set on fire separately, according to the telegram, in the presence of the soldiers, but the college building was saved.

The officials at Tokat have taken measures for the discovery and restoration to the owners of all the articles stolen recently in the different villages, and with the exception of a few unimportant incidents complete quiet prevails throughout Marash and vicinity.

The nomination of Enver Bey as mutessarif at Constantinople has produced an unfavorable impression, deplorable in the extreme, as the new official is fanatically anti-Christian and notorious for his venality.

A peculiar reply was recently made by the Turkish officials to seven men from the Kharput district, who applied to the Constantinople authorities for information about the massacres said to have occurred there. The officials were forced to tell them that the outbreaks had been most serious. When the men expressed a hope that their families were safe, the officials replied: "Better that they should have been killed outright than that they die of famine."

Official advices received here report the occurrence at Aintab of serious trouble consequent upon the Armenians wounding a soldier and four Mussulmans.

The powers, instead of ordering their fleets away from Turkish waters, as the sultan earnestly requests, seem to be determined upon keeping them in this vicinity for an indefinite period. The navies of Great Britain, Russia, Italy, Germany, Austria and the United States are well represented. Of course this is not a "naval demonstration." It is simply the concentration of the foreign fleets at a port agreed upon apparently, between the powers.

Massacres by Official Orders.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The Times publishes an article written at Erzeroum, dated Nov. 9. The correspondent says: "The massacre here certainly occurred by the order of the authorities, and this order must have emanated originally from the central authorities at Constantinople. Much circumstantial evidence can be produced to corroborate this statement."

Jail Breaking Prevented.

TRENTON, Nov. 27.—A proposed jail delivery was nipped in the bud at the state prison yesterday, and John Laugenburg, William Speer and William C. Housell, the convicts who had prepared the scheme, were put in dungeons. A fellow prisoner informed Head Keeper Patterson of their plans, and in their cells were found two prison suits dyed to another color, and a rope ladder thirty feet in length. The men were employed in the cocoa mat shop, and secreted coloring matter used there to dye their clothing. The ladder was made of cocoa strands. They were waiting for a dark or foggy night to make the break. Langenburg and Speer are from Morris county, where they were sentenced last February to ten years for breaking and entering. Housell is doing a fifteen year term for burglary in Middlesex county.

Convicted of Criminal Assault.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Walter L. S. Langerman, whose sensational trial for criminal assault on Miss Barbara Aub, has created a stir in this city for the past week was convicted yesterday afternoon. The jury returned a verdict of "guilty of rape in the first degree." The extreme penalty for the offense is twenty years imprisonment. Langerman was remanded until Friday for sentence. Langerman admitted his intimacy with Miss Aub, but said he had her consent. He said she asked him for money, and accused Miss Aub of perjury and blackmail. Mrs. Rohlfe testified in behalf of the lawyer. She said Miss Aub told her of her experience, and said that if she got $2,000 she would go away.

A Religious Moonshiner.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 27.—Reports from Union county, Penn., say that revenue officers captured a still, twenty persons and a thousand gallons of whisky. The still was run near a church, and a deacon of the church was the leader of the moonshiners.

French Mission in China Destroyed.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 27.—The French mission at Luhsiang has been destroyed by the natives of that vicinity during the absence of the French gunboat which is usually stationed in those waters.

Shot by His Daughter.

SING SING, N. Y., Nov. 27.—William Matthews, a saloon keeper of Archville, near Irvington, was shot by his young daughter Annie during a drunken quarrel between wife and husband over some trivial matter. Matthews seized an ax and tried to strike his wife, who ran through the house and out in the yard screaming. Matthews followed her, and Annie, seeing that her mother would soon be caught, seized a revolver and fired four shots at her father, one of them taking effect in Matthews' left side, inflicting a critical wound. Matthews is in a precarious condition.

Mayor Pingree Wins His Suit.

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—The supreme court at Lansing rendered a decision yesterday afternoon in favor of Mayor Pingree in a personal action brought by the mayor to test the validity of alleged overcharges made by the Detroit Mutual Gas company. The mayor claimed that during five years he had paid $181.34 more for lighting his residence than was required under the ordinance. He has won in all three courts in which the case has been tried. The Detroit Gas company will now doubtless be called to return many similar overcharges.

DEFIED THE COURT'S ORDER.

Colonel and Mrs. Lewis Perrine Will be Arrested for Contempt.

TRENTON, Nov. 27.—The habeas corpus proceedings before Vice Chancellor Bird, brought by Mrs. Mary Kemble Slack, the widow of Major William Slack, a former prominent society man of Washington, against Colonel and Mrs. Lewis Perrine, of this city, to secure the custody of her two children, who have been with the Perrines for several months past, took a sensational turn yesterday. Neither the Perrines nor the children were in court, and it was announced that they had taken the children out of the state, in defiance of the court's order. Testimony was taken and Mrs. Slack was awarded the custody of the children. An attachment for contempt of court has been issued against Mr. and Mrs. Perrine. Mrs. Perrine is the sister of Major Slack, and claims the children by virtue of the will of her dead brother.

Fatal Explosion in a Theater.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The main steam pipe, nine inches in diameter, leading from the main boiler of the engine room that is situated under the sidewalk in a deep cellar in Oscar Hammerstein's Olympia theater, at Broadway and Forty-fifth street, burst yesterday, scalding eleven men, one of whom, Fred Wynant, the assistant electrician, was killed instantly. Another man, Andrew Huggins, of Newark, in the employ of the people who have charge of the electric plant in the theater, died last night. Frederick Sauvan, steam fitter, and John Thompson, electrician, are under arrest, charged with criminal negligence.

Mr. Belden Loses His Suit.

ALBANY, Nov. 27.—The court of appeals has decided in favor of the Central Trust company in the suit of Congressman James J. Belden and other bondholders of the Columbus and Hocking Valley railroad to recover $3,000,000 said to have been misappropriated by Judge Stevenson Burke and his associate directors. The decision of the general term in favor of Belden is reversed and that of the special term, dismissing the case, affirmed with costs. Charges of fraud and of violation of trust were freely made by Mr. Belden, and the supreme court decided in his favor. This decision is now set aside.

Constitutional Convention Completed.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 27.—At 7:30 last night the constitutional convention practically completed its work, and a recess was taken until Tuesday next, when it will reassemble and ratify the constitution. A great deal of work was accomplished during the session yesterday, the most important being the striking out of the section allowing divorces granted in other states to be recognized in this state where the marriage took place out of the state and one or both of the parties was not a native or citizen of the state. The constitution goes into effect on Dec. 31.

Seventy Dead Bodies Recovered.

MADRID, Nov. 27.—Seventy bodies, of which thirty-seven were the remains of women, have been recovered from the ruins of the cartridge factory at Palma, Island of Majorca, which was blown up on Monday. It is now said that the explosion was caused by a workman who had been dismissed. Of the twenty-four injured persons taken to the hospital the majority are expected to die as a result of their injuries.

Demands of Spanish Republicans.

BARCELONA, Spain, Nov. 27.—A section has been created here by the action of the Republican leaders, who have decided to call a great mass meeting for the purpose of condemning the policy of the government in Cuba. It is proposed to issue a manifesto demanding autonomy for Cuba as a means of concluding the war on the island.

Trouble with Cheyenne Indians.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 27.—Meager reports have been received here of trouble with the Cheyenne Indians near Hutton, Wyo. The Indians are said to have been slaughtering cattle daily and the settlers are in a state of alarm. Several men are reported killed. Hutton is a small place on Rosebud creek in the Wolf mountains.

The Bardsley Pardon Appeal Postponed.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 27.—The case of John Bardsley, the imprisoned former city treasurer of Philadelphia, which was on the calendar for argument at yesterday's meeting of the board of pardons, has been postponed until the December sessions. No action was taken in the case of Hugh F. Dempsey, the Pittsburg labor leader.

FIERCE WESTERN STORM

It Caused Great Damage in Chicago and Other Cities.

FEARFUL VELOCITY OF THE WIND.

At Toledo, O., It Blew at the Rate of Eighty-one Miles an Hour—Street Cars Stalled in the Streets of Chicago—No Fatalities Reported.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—The storm which preceded the present cold snap here was one of the worst that ever struck this city. The wind blew a gale. Railroad traffic was greatly delayed, while the street car companies were forced to abandon some of their minor lines, devoting their energies to keeping the main lines open. Dispatches received here show the same state of affairs throughout Illinois. Quincy reports a howling blizzard with snow falling fast impeding street and railroad traffic, and similar reports come from Peoria, Fairbury and other parts of the state.

Passengers on the Calumet Electric Street railroad were snowbound in a desolate portion of the city, and some of them were compelled to remain all of Monday night in the cars, being unable to reach their homes in South Chicago. Car No. 17, which runs over South Chicago avenue, was stalled at 10 o'clock Monday night and remained there until morning with five passengers, in addition to the motorman and conductor, on board. A car of the Seventy-fifth street line shared a similar fate near Stony Island avenue, as did also a south bound car at South Chicago avenue and Ninety-seventh street, and another at Sixty-seventh street and Vernon avenue. Each of the cars carried passengers, who spent the night aboard. When the cars were first stalled they carried the usual number of passengers, but as the hours passed and no indications of progress were given the majority of the passengers left the cars and continued the remainder of the journey on foot. Some, however, who lived a great distance, refused to leave the cars, preferring to spend the night in them to facing the storm.

On Lake Michigan the gale was very severe and the sea running very high. Comparatively few vessels are out at this time of year, and it is not expected that there will be much loss of life, if any.

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning the steamer J. Emery Owen ran aground with two consorts, the schooners Michigan and Glencoe. Just how the pilot lost his bearing is not yet known, but was undoubtedly due to a blinding snow storm. In all there were between fifty and seventy-five people on board the three vessels, all of whom were rescued. Communication has been established with a grounded vessel off Glencoe, and it has been ascertained that none of the sailors are dead, though all are suffering terribly from exposure.

Coal Boats Wrecked.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 27.—No loss of life has been reported as a result of Monday night's gale, but much damage was done among the Ohio river towns in Kentucky and Indiana. In Louisville several residences were unroofed, chimneys were leveled and signs demolished, but across the river the damage was more severe. At Jeffersonville many barns were wrecked, and along Front street residences were unroofed and windows blown in. At Arctic Springs Captain Hoffman's coal fleet was wrecked and two of his deckhands sunk. Three shanty boats at Port Fulton were sunk, and Captain Duffy's coal fleet was torn from its moorings, and twenty-five empty boats lost. At Utica, Ind., the residence of William Hooper was demolished, but the family escaped injury. A family on board a wrecked shanty boat at Utica barely escaped. At Bird's Eye, Ind., many roofs were blown off by the storm, and at Franklin, Ind., the wind wrecked the new city hall.

A Tug Sunk at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Nov. 27.—The gale here has subsided. The damage to various kinds of property has been very great, but no fatalities have occurred. Most of the loss has been due to the high water in the harbor, caused by the prevailing direction of the wind. The water in the harbor and river has risen at least six feet. Squaw Island was almost completely submerged and some of the residents forced to leave their homes to the mercy of the waves. In the Erie basin considerable damage was done to the fleet of excursion steamers which had been laid up there for the winter. While the steamer Syracuse was being towed into the harbor she became unmanageable and cut the tug Elk almost in two. The captain and crew of the tug escaped by jumping. The Elk sank almost immediately.

Church Blown Down in Indiana.

ANDERSON, Ind., Nov. 27.—The wind blew at a hurricane speed here Monday night. The colored United church, a new building, was completely demolished. The covered bridge over the Mississinewa at Jonesboro was blown down, and the third story of the rubber works torn down. James Howard was seriously injured by the walls of a building falling on him. The Salem school house was demolished, and outbuildings, barns and fences over the county blown down. A tree fell across the engine drawing a passenger train on the Pan Handle, smashing the headlight and breaking the pilot. All electric wires were broken. At Alexandria Main street is completely blocked by roofs blown from buildings into it.

Very Severe in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 27.—One of the severest gales that ever struck this city began blowing from the south just after Monday midnight. At 5 o'clock in the morning the wind had reached a velocity of seventy-two miles an hour. Several houses were blown down and many buildings unroofed. Trees were uprooted and signs blown away in all parts of the city. The water in the river and harbor is at the lowest point recorded in years. Telegraph and telephone wires are badly prostrated in all directions.

Little Damage at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 27.—While there was widespread damage by the storm in this city, it was all in a small way. No loss of life or bodily injury is reported. The steamers Rob Roy and O'Connell were blown from their moorings and carried away by the wind, and the towboats Hercules Carel and Bonanza washed against the Memphis wharfboat, doing some damage. The Pittsburg packet H. K. Bedford narrowly escaped being crushed against the stone piers of the Louisville and Nashville railroad bridge.

Storm Still Rages in Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 27.—The recent storm reached its climax at 7:30 yesterday morning, when the mercury fell to ten points above zero, nearly ten degrees lower than the lowest point in this section. The storm seriously affected the trains scheduled in this city, and most of the trains from the east and the west pulled in the Union depot behind time. The conductors reported no serious trouble with the snow, the delay being due to crippled wire service. But little news has been received from Kansas points, but it is known that the storm still rages in the western portion of that state, as well as through the territories.

Blowing Eighty-one Miles an Hour.

TOLEDO, Nov. 27.—A terrific wind storm visited this city early yesterday morning, and played havoc with telegraph and telephone wires. The streets were strewn with signs and rubbish. Tin roofs were blown off and the standing walls of a large building recently destroyed by fire were blown down. The wind at one time reached a velocity of eighty-one miles an hour, and for four hours it registered sixty-four miles an hour.

No Storm on the Pacific Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—The severe storm that has been raging through the east did not extend west of the Rockies. The weather on the Pacific coast has been unusually cold during the past few days, and is still cold in places in Nevada, Oregon and Washington. Snow has fallen throughout the last named state, but there has been no interruption of railroad traffic.

Off the New England Coast.

BOSTON, Nov. 27.—A high southerly gale, accompanied by a heavy rainfall, prevails off the New England coast. The velocity of the wind at times has approached the rate of forty miles an hour. Mariners had warning of the storm, and many vessels remained in the harbor. Telegraph wires were considerably affected, but little other damage is reported in this section.

Thousands of Oil Derricks Blown Down.

LIMA, O., Nov. 27.—A terrific wind storm Monday night blew down thousands of oil derricks and caused other damage amounting to several hundred thousand dollars. No lives reported lost.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 27.—Arlington Heights, one of the pretty residential sections on the east bank of the Passaic river, was the scene of a double shooting affray yesterday afternoon which will result in the death of Thomas Colt, a photographer of New York city, and the possible maiming for life of Miss Carrie Plate, whose life Colt in the desperate but futile efforts to end before he fired a bullet into his own head. Colt met Miss Plate some years ago, and it is believed that the shooting was the outcome of a love affair, though this is denied by Miss Plate's family. They claim that her relations with him were strictly of a business character. They offer no explanation, however, for the shooting.

Senator Hill as a Lecturer.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 27.—Senator Hill was greeted by an audience of 1,200 people at his first appearance as a lecturer in this city last night. The price of admission to the theater was 50 cents each, and that is given as an explanation of there being so small attendance. The lecture was on the subject of "Liberty," the underlying idea being that the safest kind of liberty and government was that which did not attempt to legislate in matters of personal relations and habits. He proclaimed his sympathy with the Cubans in their present struggle for independence and denounced the annexation fever which was growing in certain quarters of America.

Murder in a Kentucky Church.

LONDON, Ky., Nov. 27.—News brought here today by a messenger from the mountain district tells of a fight with pistols in a church near Manchester, Clay county, on Sunday morning, in which John Boles was killed and his two sons and Robert Heiden were fatally shot, and John Roberts and Deputy Sheriff Allen, who tried to stop the fight, were slightly wounded. The trouble was the outgrowth of an old grudge. John Roberts and Julius Webb, aged about 25 years, did the shooting.

Dumas' Condition Worse.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—The condition of Alexandre Dumas is slightly worse. He has great difficulty in breathing, which is relieved only by the inhalation of oxygen. In view of his remarkably strong constitution, however, the doctors are in hopes of prolonging his life. It is said that meningitis has supervened in the case of M. Dumas.

Two Men Crushed to Death.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 27.—While at work in a deep coal stripping hole at Milnesville colliery John Martin and John Ruske, two miners, were buried by a landslide. They were driving alongside of a ravine when the earth dropped away, carrying them to the bottom of the ravine and covering them beneath thousands of tons of debris. The crash was felt for three miles around, and created great excitement. It took three hours hard work to find the bodies of the workmen.

Probably Murdered in Jackson's Hole.

GREEN RIVER, Wyo., Nov. 27.—George McClain, a photographer, started for Jackson's Hole with his wife and two children early last spring. McClain corresponded regularly with relatives here until about the time of the Bannock Indian scare. This week a young man returned from the Jackson's Hole country and reported seeing the wreckage of a photographic outfit on the Hole, and this occasions the fear that he and his family have been foully dealt with.

ON TRIAL FOR HER LIFE.

The Case Against Mrs. Howell, an Alleged Poisoner.

EVIDENCE ONLY CIRCUMSTANTIAL.

The Case One of the Strangest in the Criminal Annals of Pennsylvania—The Prosecution Declares the Prisoner Was Jealous of Her Victim, Libbie Knapp.

WELLSBORO, Pa., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Charlotte Howell was put on trial in the county court here yesterday, charged with the murder of Miss Libbie Knapp, at Tioga, last spring. It took until 3 o'clock in the afternoon to select a jury, and then District Attorney Owlett opened the case, outlining the evidence to be presented for the prosecution, which is purely circumstantial.

The case is one of the strangest in the criminal annals of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Howell is a member of a well known New York family, and her two brothers, Dutton by name, are among the wealthiest merchants of the metropolis. She has been estranged from them, it is said, since her marriage with Chauncey Howell, a teamster. The Howells and Knapps were neighbors in Tioga, and a warm intimacy existed between Mrs. Howell and Libbie, who was 19 years old. Libbie had a love affair which ended in a parting, and thereafter she began to receive unpleasant letters, which would be found tied to the door knob. These bore the signature of a Tioga young man, and most of them, it is alleged, were found early in the morning by Mrs. Howell.

Last May Libbie was suddenly taken ill, and Mrs. Howell took her to her own home to attend her. On May 17 she died, and subsequently evidences of poisoning were found. Detectives were put on the case, and Mrs. Howell was arrested. The commonwealth proposes to show that Mrs. Howell wrote all the letters, that she was jealous of the girl, and that she administered rat poison. The letters were all printed in Roman letters with a lead pencil, and were threatening in character.

Kansas Congressmen Stick to Waller.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The Kansas congressional delegation, as soon as possible after the Fifty-fourth congress begins, will introduce resolutions in both houses looking to an investigation of the circumstances connected with the arrest and imprisonment of ex-Consul Waller. The members of the delegation take the position that the United States is entitled to the record of the trial as a matter of right, and therefore should not ask it as an act of comity. The probabilities are that they will attempt to secure the passage of a resolution instructing the government to stand by its demand for the document.

Chile's New Ministry.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The Chilean president, who has been for several months without a cabinet, has, according to a dispatch just received at the Chilean legation, organized a complete ministry, as follows: Prime minister, Oswaldo Rengifo; minister of foreign affairs, Adolfo Guerrero; justice and public instruction, Gaspar Taro; finance, Henriquez Perez do Arce; war and navy, Louis Barros Borgono; industry and public works, Elias Fernandez Albana. The new minister of foreign affairs is the present Chilean minister to the Argentine Republic.

Educational Qualification for Immigrants.

BOSTON, Nov. 27.—Senator Lodge and Congressman McCall will introduce in congress a bill prepared by the Immigration Restriction league to further restrict immigration. This bill adds to the classes at present excluded from the United States the following: All persons between the ages of 14 and 60 who cannot both read and write the English language, or some other language. This provision, if it becomes a law, it is asserted, will keep out 20 per cent. of the most undesirable immigrants who now come here.

A Negro Girl's Suspicious Death.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 27.—In a field three miles from Sumter, S. C., the body of a 12-year-old negro girl, partially eaten by buzzards, was found. Her father went crazy some months ago, and she was given into the care of a well-to-do negro farmer. The farmer has been arrested, and the coroner is investigating.

The "Nigger" Boiler Exploded.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 27.—While the towboat W. W. O'Neil was getting up steam to go to Pittsburg the "nigger" boiler exploded. Engineer Andrew McRobinson had his leg broken, Mate T. W. McDermott and Steward William Hizer were badly scalded. All live in Pittsburg.

The Indian Mohawk Freed.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 27.—Upon the request of Jacob H. Horn, the father of little Johnnie Horn, who was killed by the Indian, Mohawk, of Buffalo Bill's troupe, State's Attorney Kerr yesterday nolle prossed the case against the Indian. The father stated that upon investigating the case he thoroughly believed the deed was wholly accidental. W. F. Cody paid all expenses attending the boy's death.

Refused to Urge Wilde's Pardon.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—M. Emile Zola has refused to sign the petition for the release of Oscar Wilde from prison, and most of the other litterateurs who have been approached on the subject have either declined or returned ambiguous replies. It is likely, in consequence of these rebuffs, that the promoters of the idea of an international petition of writers for Wilde's release will abandon it.

Cuban Insurgents as Train Wreckers.

HAVANA, Nov. 27.—A band of insurgents derailed a train in the Caibarien district of the province of Santa Clara, killing many of the persons on board and wounding a number of others. The military escort on board the train made a brave defense, during the course of which both sides lost heavily. The insurgents burned the derailed cars.

TWO LIFELONG LOVERS.

A Sentence Overheard In the Street Answers the Old Conundrum.

Tired by a long day's work and feeling a bit "blue" over some matters which had gone counter to my hopes, I was walking down Broadway one night last week, on my way home. It was after 10 o'clock and the down town streets were almost deserted.

As I turned through Sixteenth street I noticed an old lady and an older gentleman walking slowly, arm in arm, evidently husband and wife. He was apparently about 70, she perhaps five years younger.

They seemed very fond of each other. There was just the least little inclination of the head of each toward the other, and they were strolling along so slowly as to suggest the thought that their pace was regulated not so much by the infirmities of age as by the desire and pleasure of being alone together. They were talking earnestly.

It had rained earlier in the evening and the sidewalks were still wet, so that I had put on my rubbers before leaving the office. Consequently my approach was noiseless. Just as I overtook and passed the old people the man turned to his wife and said, as if in answer to some remark she had made, "But, my dear, I like to think God sent you to me."

From a lover to his sweetheart or from a young husband to a young wife the words might have sounded sentimental, and would certainly have seemed commonplace, but from a husband of three score and ten to a wife of 65 they had a weight and dignity which made them sweet to hear and wholesome to recall.

Here was the whole story of two lives told in a sentence. Here was the answer to the old question about marriage. For them it was surely a divine success. Here at least was proof that the writers of fairy tales and of old time novels spoke truly when they said that "they were married and lived happy ever after."—New York Herald.

KOREAN CURIOSITIES.

All the Tools Made by Hand and Native Iron Used.

Frank G. Carpenter, writing about the peculiarities of Korea, says among other things:

"One of our ponies had to be shod, and another time we put shoes on the bull which carried the baggage. The pony was first thrown to the ground, and his four legs were tied together so that he couldn't possibly kick.

"Then the blacksmith pounded hoop iron shoes on his feet with a rude iron hammer. It was the same with the bull, though one man had to sit on his head while he was being shod. The iron seemed to be very good, and it comes from the mines in the northern part of the country. The tools of the country are made of it, and the farming tools are very ingenious, the three and four pronged hoes being quite as good as anything we have in America. They were making tools in this blacksmith's shop, and all the tools and plows are made by hand.

"The blacksmith had a rude bellows, which was worked by a boy who stood on a seesaw and by moving up and down pumped the fire into a blaze. In other places I saw bellows which boys worked by pulling a stick in and out like that of a squirtgun, and everything is rude in the extreme.

"Sometimes horses are shod by being strapped up to poles, so that only two of their feet can rest on the ground, and the band which goes around the belly holds the horse up while he is shod."—Roxbury Gazette.

A Lake of Boiling Lava.

Mauna Loa, the gigantic Hawaiian volcano, has two craters or openings, one of which, Kilauea, is the largest active volcanic crater in the world. The mountain is 14,100 feet high, and Kilauea is situated on the eastern side, about 4,000 feet above the level of the sea. This marvelous crater is really a vast lake of boiling lava which rises and falls continually by the action of subterranean fires. In tossing to and fro like a troubled sea of molten metal the lava is dashed against the cliffs and hardens there in the form of long, glassy filaments, gigantic knobs, miniature trees, and in imitation of grass, leaves, etc.

Another form of glassy filament to be found along the shores of this fiery lake is in the shape of queer bunches and tufts of lava made up of an aggregation of vitreous threads which the natives call "Pele's hair," Pele being the goddess to whom the mountain is dedicated. These glassy threads appear to be caused by the passage of steam through the molten lava. In so doing small particles in the shape of bubble-like balloons are thrown into the air, leaving a tail behind like a comet. When the scene of these miniature steam eruptions is near a rock or the shore all solid and cool surfaces are found covered with bunches of "Pele's hair." This "hair" was formerly used in mystic native ceremonies, and of late years has been gathered in large quantities by curiosity seekers.—St. Louis Republic.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at McMonagle and Rogers' Drug Store.

These Are Not New Women.

How grand that statue standing there,
With torch aloft in freedom's air,
Whose woman's lines in shapeliness
The beauty of our laws confess,
As from her throne of granite she
Proclaims to us sweet liberty;
But not us alone; a share
Awaits all people everywhere,
And we, admiring, lift our hands
To her, the goddess of all lands—
But how would she look in trousers?

Chaste Dian, like a wheeling star,
Above the madding crowd, afar,
Swings regnant in her radiant arc,
A thing of beauty and a mark
For art to aim at. Poising there,
The genius of the upper air,
She stands tiptoe, a beauteous sight
For earth to gaze at, day and night—
But how would she look in trousers?

Upon that wondrous dome of steel,
Which all the roads to Rome reveal
At Washington, a goddess stands,
The proudest in a thousand lands,
And with a firm, unchanging gaze,
Keeps watch and ward upon the ways
Wherein the nation walks; she feels
The danger that each law conceals,
And waits, enamored, for the fight
That dares maintain the people's rights—
But how would she look in trousers?

In gilded, glorious Paris there
Is found a woman's figure fair,
A poet's dream in marble white,
The passage of an angel's flight
In cold, hard stone; a Venus mold
Eternity cannot make old;
Armless, but armed by beauty, she
Has conquered art and poesy,
Unwrinkled by the passing years,
Untouched by joy, unstained by tears,
Half clad, she stands the only one,
A passion and a benison—
But how would she look in trousers?

ASPARAGUS ENDORSED.

THE USE OF ASPARAGUS IN MEDICINE OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED.

Eminent French Physicians Have Found It Valuable—What the "U. S. Health Reports" Says About Sparagus Kidney Pills and Their Curative Powars.

Asparagus is a kidney tonic.

It builds up and invigorates the kidneys, and cures them from the effects of injuries, overwork, etc.

Doctors agree that Asparagus is good for the kidneys, but no strong extract with all the medicinal properties had been prepared until Dr. Hobb prepared it from the roots by a special process of his own.

He found this so successful that he made it up into pills, with some few other ingredients, and used them in his private practice for years.

This was the origin of Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.

French physicians of repute have carefully tested Asparagus in all kidney troubles, and consider it of great value.

Now the United States Health Reports, Vol. XXIV, No. 2, has to say about Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pill:

"Dr. Dio Lewis said: Nineteen diseases out of twenty originate from diseased kidneys, and those who have made pathology a study will agree with this eminent physician that where the kidneys fail to perform their functions in any way the whole system becomes enervated and the body diseased. When the kidneys fail to perform their wonted task, effete and injurious matter is carried to all parts of the body. Through a mistaken diagnosis, these symptoms are pronounced separate and distinct diseases, but as a matter of fact they can only be cured by remedies which reach and relieve the overworked kidneys and strengthen them, so that they can successfully act their part as cleansers of the body, thereby insuring regularity, strength and good health throughout the entire system.

"Among all the Remedies claiming to perform this much desired result, and which have been investigated by the compilers of these Reports, it has been found that while there was much to commend there was much to be desired. It is, therefore, with more than ordinary pleasure, after a most painstaking investigation, and a long and careful examination of the results achieved by the remedy placed upon the market by the Hobb's Medicine Co., known as Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills, that we pronounce this preparation a kidney remedy par-excellent, and one that will speedily and effectually cure all diseases of the kidneys, whatever their origin or name, or however chronic or deep-seated they may be

"During a quarter of a century of journalism, during which time we have exercised a watchful care over many of the preparations having for their object the cure of kidney diseases, we have never come across a preparation of such merit as Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills"

By eating Asparagus a slight effect is had on the kidneys, but the greater part of the curative property of the plant is not absorbed and goes to waste.

The extract of Asparagus, however, as prepared by Dr. Hobb contains all the active curative elements so prepared that they are at once absorbed and do their work of curing the kidneys without waste or loss.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills cure all kidney diseases and all blood diseases, such as Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Anaemia, etc.

They will cure when other remedies will not even relieve.

For sale by all druggists, or mailed prepaid for 50 cents a box.

The Death of George H. Casterline.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—The sudden death of Mr. George H. Casterline, of this place, was a great shock to the whole community as well as to his immediate family, as for the past few weeks he had been feeling unusually well and had been in good spirits. Mr. Casterline was a very popular and highly respected citizen, and will be greatly missed among his neighbors, as well as by the country roundabout, which had been his dwelling place for the past fifty years or more, with the exception of two or three years spent at Paterson, N. J., and Port Jervis. No place, however, suited him as well as his old home at Mt. Salem, which he purchased again and settled down for good. Mr. Casterline was in his seventy-third year and was the last of thirteen children, all of whom lived to mature age and several of whom died suddenly. The funeral was largely attended at the church here, Thursday, at 11 a. m, the Rev. Mr. Yeomans, of Unionville, preaching a very appropriate and impressive sermon from the text, "There is but a step between me and death." Interment in the Mt. Salem Cemetery.

We all know that any tired muscle can be restored by rest. Your stomach is a muscle. Dyspepsia is a manner of saying "I am tired. Give me rest" To rest the stomach you must do its work outside of the body. This is the Shaker's method of curing indigestion, and its success is best attested by the fact that these people are practically free from what is without doubt the most prevalent of all diseases. The Shaker Digestive Cordial not only contains digested food which is promptly absorbed without taxing the tired digestive organs, but it is likewise an aid to the digestion of other foods in the stomach. A 10 cent trial bottle will convince you of its merit, and these you can obtain through all druggist.

LAXOL is the best medicine for children, Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

RIOT AT A STATE PRISON.

Officers Terribly Beaten by Convicts, and One May Die.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 27.—A desperate riot occurred at the state prison yesterday. Deputy Warden Northrup was struck on the head with a hammer, and is thought to be fatally injured. Superintendent Coffee, of the shirt factory, was beaten into insensibility with a club, and Foreman Muller brutally beaten. A score of machines were smashed with hammers and iron bars. There were 100 convicts at work in the shirt factory, but only eight took part in the riot. The trouble was caused by Foreman Muller threatening to report Dick Huntley, a twenty year man, for not doing his work properly. Huntley secured a club and knocked Muller down. Other officers rushed to the foreman's assistance, when several convicts took a hand and the riot became general, but on the appearance of armed keepers the prisoners ceased their murderous efforts and were locked in their cells.

Dedication of Philadelphia's Bourse.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov 27.—The annual banquet of the board of trade last night was one of the most successful affairs of the sort ever given in this city. The occasion may be regarded as the informal opening of the Philadelphia Bourse building, which is said to be the greatest public business structure in this country, if not in the world. The speakers were ex-Senator George F. Edmunds, President George B. Roberts, of the Pennsylvania railroad, Mayor Charles F. Warwick and other distinguished orators. Perhaps the most interesting personage present was Frederick Fraley, president of the board of trade, who, although nearly 90 years of age, made a speech that was declared to be equal to any oration delivered during the evening.

Lambert's Third Death Sentence.

TRENTON, Nov. 27.—Governor Werts yesterday issued the death warrant of Theodore Lambert of Camden, who murdered William Kairer. Lambert is sentenced to be hanged on Dec. 19. Lawyer Semple will make an appeal to the board of pardons for the commutation of sentence. This is the third time Lambert has been sentenced to death. On one occasion a stay arrived within fifteen minutes of the time set for the execution and while the hearse containing a coffin for the body of Lambert stood before the jail door.

Troops Prevent a Lynching.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov 27.—Last week a white woman was murdered and cremated near Hodges, S. C., and two negroes were arrested and landed in the county jail at Abbeyville. An attempt was made about 3 o'clock in the morning to take one of the prisoners out of jail and lynch him, but the sheriff refused to admit the lynching party, and the local militia promptly responding to his call the lynchers left without accomplishing their purpose.

Striking Housesmiths Still Hold Out.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The threat made by J. B. Cornell and McMiken Brothers to fill the places of the striking housesmiths yesterday was not carried out and consequently no sympathetic strike was ordered. Forty men went to work on the Siegel Cooper & Co. building but they were induced to leave their work by representatives of the strikers. A number of the strikers have gone to work for Rider & Connolly, a union firm.

Cost of a Christian Endeavor Convention.

BOSTON, Nov. 27.—The completion of all business relating to the great Christian Endeavor convention held here in July, was celebrated last night by a banquet at Hotel Brunswick, at which the now famous committee of thirteen sat down with President Francis E. Clark, D. D. and Secretary John Willis Baer. The total receipts were $22,782 with contributions in labor and material amounting to nearly $10,000. The total expenditures were $22,286, leaving a balance of $496.

Consumption—

Collapse

in this disease is what physicians constantly are on the look-out for, knowing that it means the end. Just keep up the strength; keep the body nourished properly, so that waste of tissue is checked, and with proper medicines death is delayed indefinitely, or a permanent cure, as has been proved in thousands of cases is accomplished. To effect this much desired result, give the patient

Bovinine

Dr. W. E. S. Preston, House Physician of the "House of Rest for Consumptives," of Tremont, N. Y., says, "I have never known a case where the stomach has rejected Bovinine. In cases of collapse, so common among consumptives, we always use it." Bovinine being easy to take, and quick of assimilation and a wonderful food product, at once starts on its mission of creating strength, flesh and blood. It tones up the vital organs and by thus invigorating them, enables them to throw off disease and gives to the sufferer a new lease of life where such a thing is possible.

C. MACARDELL, PUBLISHER.

GEORGE H. THOMPSON, C. MACARDELL, } EDITORS
J. E. ROBINSON, A. E. NICKINSON, } CITY EDITORS
C. MACARDELL, JR., - BUSINESS MANAGER

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 27, 1895.

Though beaten at the polls and in the courts, Hugo Hirsh can't give up that Supreme Court judgeship. He announces that he will appeal from Judge Gaynor's decision refusing to throw out the Gleason "battle-axe" ballots on which Martin J. Keogh's name was printed.

Warner Miller and Speaker Fish have declared in favor of high license and say that that is all the excise reform the next Legislature will grant. Fish favors the Ohio law, which abolishes the license system and allows any one to engage in the liquor business who will pay the high tax imposed on those who conduct saloons.

A PATRIOTIC IMPULSE.

That the renewal of gold exports is exercising unwholesome influence upon business, is for the time putting a brake upon enterprise, is unquestionable; and it is a shame and a humiliation that the loss of a few millions of the metal, whether taken from us through operations of legitimate trade balances or sent out of the country for purely speculative ends, should at this time be regarded by a people so enlightened and so rich, with any concern.

We say, at this time, for surely there can no longer be any apprehension by intelligent men that the cause of free silver coinage has any longer a foothold in this county.

But, all the same, the fact is that the government's gold reserve fund having again fallen below the absurdly sentimental hundred million limit is exercising mischievous influence in financial and commercial circles; and, moreover, is being seized upon by speculators as a bugaboo opportunity for harvest making.

There is talk of another issue of bonds to strengthen the government in gold, but a better remedy than this is at hand, a remedy the application of which would instantaneously change the whole situation and earn for us the admiration and the applause of the whole world.

The first step in this direction has already been taken by a few sagacious and patriotic citizens of New York and Philadelphia, and by the First National Bank of Atlantic City, N. J.

Acting under the spirit of the call made by Secretary Carlisle, these citizens have gone to the Sub-Treasury in New York city and exchanged their personal belongings in gold coin for greenbacks. In this way the government was, yesterday, made $15,000 stronger in gold than it would otherwise have been. At the same time $25,000 in gold in exchange for greenbacks was received from the First National Bank of Atlantic City, N. J., while the still larger sum of $100,000 in gold was contributed to the same end by a Philadelphia dry goods house. Not a bad beginning in one day for this new-born patriotic impulse.

We rightly designate this movement a patriotic impulse, but it is something more, it is an inspiration of business sagacity.

It is estimated there are $636,000,000 gold coin in this country, of which $80,000,000 is in the Treasury, $120,000,000 in the banks and $136,000,000 elsewhere. If of this great aggregated sum, but $100,000,000 should find its way into the Treasury in this manner inestimable blessings would result. There would be no further talk of an issue of bonds; there would be an ending of speculative gold exports; there would be subsidence of currency agitation; there would be restored confidence in financial and business circles, and certain as this earth revolves upon its axis, there would be a business boom.

And now to bring this matter to our own firesides. Why can't Middletown's financial institutions and the citizens of Middletown take a hand in this sensible and patriotic movement to fortify the Treasury in gold?

Appointed House Surgeon in the Metropolitan Hospital.

Dr. Howard J. Powelson was notified, yesterday, that he had successfully passed the competitive examination and has been appointed house surgeon in the Metropolitan Hospital on Blackwell's Island. The appointment is for two years and the hospital having over 600 beds will afford Dr. Powelson fine opportunities for surgical practice.

Man's Weak Point.

Mr. Newed—Are you sure you love me as much as ever?

Mr. Newed—Perfectly.

"And you will never, never love any one else?"

"Never."

"And there isn't anything you wouldn't do for my happiness?"

"Nothing. That is, of course, nothing within the bounds of reason."

"Hum! I thought so. You are just like all the rest. You've begun to reason."—New York Weekly.

Clothed In Her Right Mind.

"I hope our boy won't acquire any extravagant habits," said the village minister anxiously.

His wife said she didn't worry.

"So long as I can keep him in your old ones that I've cut down," she added, "I do not think there is any danger."

Nor could there be.—New York Recorder.

A Famous German Doctor's Work.

Consumption is now known to be curable if taken in time—the German remedy known as Otto's Cure, having been found to be an almost certain cure for the disease. Asthma Bronchitis, Croup, Coughs, Colds, Pneumonia, and all throat and lung diseases are quickly cured by Dr. Otto's Great German Remedy. Sample bottles of Otto's Cure are being given away by our agent. J. J. Chambers, 57 North St. near Post Office.

THE PRIZE BABY OF KANSAS CITY MO.

Cured of Disfiguring ECZEMA By the CUTICURA REMEDIES

Our baby when three weeks old was badly afflicted with Eczema. Her head, arms, neck, limbs, and mouth every joint in her body was raw and bleeding when we concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. We began with CUTICURA (ointment) and CUTICURA SOAP and after the first application we could see a change. After we had used them one week some of the sores had healed entirely, and ceased to spread. In less than a month, she was free from scales and blemishes and to-day has as lovely a skin and hair as any child. She was shown at the Grange Fair, and took a premium as the prettiest baby, over sixteen others. MR. & MRS. PARK, 1609 Belleview Ave., Kan. City. Sold everywhere. POTTER DRUG & CHEM. CORP., BOSTON.

Distinctions.

"Money makes a heap of difference in the world," said the misanthrope.

"Of course it does. Still, a man can always choose his associations."

"Oh, I don't know about that. Here I am with such limited means that I can't be on speaking terms with even the telephone company."—Washington Star.

Tawdry is derived from St. Audrey. In the early middle ages fairs were held in France and England on St. Audrey's day, and these annual gatherings became noted for the gaudy and worthless jewelry sold at them.

If the mind, that rules the body, ever so far forgets itself as to trample on its slave, the slave is never generous enough to forgive the injury, but will rise and smite the oppressor.—Longfellow.

A witty Frenchman said, "Only death is an excuse for not keeping a dinner engagement, and even then a polite man would send the undertaker to apologize for him."

Does It Pay to Be Sick?

Besides the discomfort and suffering, illness of any sort is expensive. Hundreds of people consult the doctors every day about coughs and colds. This is better than to suffer the disease to run along, but those who use Otto's Cure for the throat and lungs do better still. It costs less and the cure is certain. You can get a trial bottle free of our agents, J. J. Chambere, 27 North St. near Post Office.

A Baby's Life Saved.

ADDISON, N. Y., April 8, 1894.—Hand Medicine Co.:—"I feel it my duty to write you in regard to my little daughter's sickness from teething and indigestion. She is seven months old. Two of the best physicians gave her up. One bottle of Dr. Hand's Teething Lotion relieved her so much that we tried Dr. Hand's Colic Cure also, and at once saw a change for the better. These remedies saved my baby's life.—Mrs. Wellington Brown." Dr. Hand's Colic Cure and Dr. Hand's Teething Lotion sold by all druggists, 25c.

THE SCHUBERT CLUB CONCERT.

Well Attended in Spite of the Rain—A Well Selected and Well Rendered Programme—A Very Appreciative Audience.

The concerts of the Schubert Club have established themselves among the chief musical events of our city. Always admirable, the intelligent and conscientious drill of their director has given to each succeeding performance a constantly increasing excellence. Those who missed the one given last night missed a rare treat.

Mendelssohn's "Greeting" and the "Cradle Song" of Decevee were among the numbers most perfectly rendered The "Lost Chord" of Sullivan is surpassed in beauty by no single composition of that master of recent English song, who has been worthily honored with knighthood by his queen. While fairly rendered last night, it well deserves the outlay of the utmost endeavor which the club and its conductors can give it and should be marked for repetitoin in one of its early programmes.

The Schumann Club set, last winter, a very high standard for any similar organization that should succeed it. The numbers of the Dudley Buck Quartette, who assisted at this concert, were, however, well rendered and received hearty encores.

A club of thirty-three women, elegantly dressed, with many beautiful faces among them, and led by a queenly conductor, presents a strong appeal to the eye as well as the ear. It is to be regretted that from the imperfect lighting of the stage, so much of the enjoyment from this source was practically lost to the audience last night.

A chorus exclusively of school or even college girls' voices, often lacks the volume necessary for the highest musical effect, but the greater average maturity of those in the Schubert Club gives a fullness, richness and volume of tone which so fills and satisfies the ear as to provoke no unfavorable comparisons. The remaining concerts of the winter should see the church where they are given crowded with the lovers of the highest, as it is certainly the most enjoyable, of the arts. H. L

The audience laid itself open to the suspicion of wanting two concerts for the price of one, for it encored the Dudley Buck Quartette and its individual members every time they appeared. It certainly gave the lie to the assertion that some people are fond of making, that Middletown audiences are cold and unsympathetic. A little less warmth and sympathy would not have been amiss, and those who like to have a decent opinion of the taste of their fellow men and women would have been pleased if the audience, which barely smiled at the tuneful measures and delicate humor of "King Witlaf's Drinking Horn," had not been convulsed with laughter at the horse play humor of that dreary, witless and tuneless chestnut, the teacher and the tack.

THE WINE OF LIFE.

He best can drink the wine of life
  And sweetly crush the grape of fate
Who shuts the Janus door of strife
  And binds an olive on his gate.

Who needs no victim to atone
  The record of his blameless hour;
Contentment is the cornerstone
  On which he builds his arch of power.

So with this hour of push and peif,
  Where naught to-morrow seems to last,
Vex not thy miserable self,
  But scared the fallows of the past.

A broad cup brimmed with mighty red
  These silent years to us assign.
From old Falernian vineyards shed
  The Roman sends the Tenedos wine.

Old fanes have breathed against the grapes,
  Old world aromas haunt the bowl—
Still music of forgotten shapes,
  Dim pathos of a pagan soul.

There from those dark and glimmering lands,
  From altars wreathed with ivy trail,
Old Faunus reaches out his hands
  And bids the mild barbarian hail.

—Lord de Tablay.

UNDER FIRE.

"What class, sir?"

"Third—not a smoking carriage."

The porter deposited my gun and cartridge cases on the rack and my dressing bag on the seat in the corner and accepted his sixpence with the nonchalance of a man who, on a Saturday afternoon in holiday time, can make plenty more of them.

From Charing Cross to Cannon street I had my compartment to myself. Having reached that point, it was invaded by a horde of the type generally referred to as one's "fellow creatures." The aristocrat of the party was a clerk on his way to Ramsgate for a week. He proceeded to fill and light a brier wood pipe. As he was sitting at the other end of the carriage and was smoking a fragrant tobacco from far Virginia, I neither felt nor made any objection to his doing so. It was a different matter when a gentleman of an obliging familiarity of manner joined us at London bridge, carrying a clay pipe charged with the blackest and most pungent of shag.

Now the close proximity of a smoker of shag is a very abominable thing, and it was for the sake of avoiding it on a journey of some three hours' duration that I had resolved to forego the companionship of my own pipe for that length of time and had sought the seclusion of a nonsmoking carriage, where a possible baby would be my sole annoyance. Consequently, when my neighbor, after a decent interval, rammed a horny forefinger into the bowl of his pipe, and, producing a dirty wax match from his waistcoat pocket, proceeded to light up, I addressed a polite and carefully worded remonstrance to him.

"I'm afraid this isn't a smoking carriage," I said. He looked at me.

"Oh, isn't it?" he said.

"No."

"Do yer object then?"

"I don't object to it on the other side of the carriage," I said, "but I do object as you are sitting next to me."

"And who wants to sit next to yer, ugly?" he inquired, with rising asperity. "Yer ain't a female, are yer, to object to a little bit o' baccy? It's a pity yer didn't get into a fust class carriage."

"It's a pity you didn't get into a smoking carriage if you wanted to smoke," I retorted. "At any rate you're not going to smoke here."

"Hi assure yer, my lord," he said, with laborious suavity, "hi don't want ter sit next t'yer. Hi shed be sorry to contaminate my morals by such a conventuality," and he moved over to the opposite seat in the middle of the carriage.

"I'll tell yer wot I'll do," he pursued. "I'll put out my pipe, so there now." He did so and restored it to his pocket with the air of a man who has scored heavily. Then he leaned toward me with his elbows on his knees and took me in with a withering glance from head to foot.

"Hand me I harsk wot yore persition in life may be?" he inquired. "Hare yer a socialist or a numbug, or wot are yer? Do yer teach in the Sunday schools? P'raps yer d like a glarss o' milk." Note the decreasing respectability of the employments suggested as his scorn ripened. "Wot d'yer want to prevent a respectable man enjoying of 'is pipe for? I tell yer wot yer oughter done. Yer oughter taken a special train, yer ought. That's ter say," he added, with great deliberation and intense disdain, "if yer could afford it, yer know. I don't serpose they pays very 'igh in the establishment wot commands yore service." He was quite right. They do not.

At this point, perceiving that I was in for a protracted harangue, I took up my Pall Mall Gazette and feigned an absorbing interest in its contents. I did it rather well. I ran my eye along the lines, I turned over a page, and even allowed a smile to curl my lips at an entirely imaginary joke.

"That's right," commented my assailant. "I am glad they taught yer to read at the board school. Yer go on and yer'll be able to read The St. James Gazette soon." The point of this latter sarcasm is not yet plain to me, but the fact of my so sensationally ignoring his conversation proved quite as irritating as I had hoped. He gathered himself together for a fresh attack, and addressed me for about the space of a quarter of an hour in a manner not at all abusive, but quite unfettered by any reticence of criticism. He took in all my weak points and animadverted on them carefully but fearlessly.

He began with my personal appearance. My best friends have never called me good looking, although they have never told me that I was positively repulsive. He did. He went further. He said it made him sick to look at me, illustrating his point with an embarrassing realism. He said that they had lately missed a chimpanzee from the zoological gardens and expressed his intention of giving information at the next station that he had found it and claim the reward. My ears are rather prominent. He called them 'andles to my 'ead. My nose is not quite Grecian in outline. He thought it must have been put on hot and run over my face. My mouth is rather large. He asked if it buttoned behind.

Having disposed of my face and figure, he passed on to my clothes. Of my serge suit he had not much to say. Indeed it appeared to satisfy him more than it did me, for I had addressed a few deprecatory remarks to my tailor on the subject a few days before. My gloves he suggested I should wear on my feet and hoped they would fit better than my shoes did.

His strictures were well grounded, for, wanting a pair of shoes for bicycling some weeks ago, I bought some ready made ones of brown calf and had been ill advised enough to wear them on this occasion. They did not fit me well and were fast wearing out. I should have liked the man who sold them to me for 14s. 6d. to have heard my critic's remarks upon them. From the technicalities he employed I rather think he must have been "interested" in shoe leather.

Otherwise, from the general tone of his criticisms, I feel sure he would have attributed some of their deficiencies of appearance to the feet inside them. My shirt did not please him. It was of blue striped flannel. He asked me how much I gave for it, but I did not tell him, because he would not have believed me. He pointed out that he himself was man enough to wear white shirts, and indeed it was quite conceivable that the one he had on might have been white a week ago, and, given a large expenditure of soap and labor, might some day be white again.

He wanted to know why I, who called myself a gentleman (I never have), couldn't afford anything better than flannel. He said he was ashamed of me. He had said that before, and he said it often afterward. I felt rather apprehensive about the treatment my tie would undergo, and when its time came it was very fully dealt with. It certainly was rather gaudy. It was made of Indian cotton, in a pattern of yellows and greens and reds.

After its cheapness of appearance, the thing that seemed to strike him most was its inadequacy as a protection against cold. As it was only rather a narrow bow, the deficiency was perhaps not quite so remarkable as he was inclined to make out. He said if I would make him a present of it he would give it to his missus for a pair of garters, but I did not offer to do so.

He offered me half a crown for my bag, sixpence for my stick, threepence for my umbrella and various sums ranging from 3 farthings up to nearly a shilling and amounting in the aggregate to about four and sixpence, for all my clothes as I stood. There was no question for myself—in fact, he said he had seen better men made out of tea leaves. My gun and cartridges he did not identify as belonging to me, but a carpet bag which was over my head ruled the market at one and sixpence, because he said it would be useful for his old cat to kitten in.

This mistake proved his downfall and my salvation. The lady to whom it belonged, a virtuous female who was conveying two children and a husband to the seaside, was very much offended at this allusion to her property. She said she was a respectable married woman, which was obvious; that she had left home that morning with a headache and fixed on a non-smoking carriage for the curious reason that she didn't want to travel in a smoking one.

She rebuked my astounded aggressor in no measured language for his treatment of me, whom she was kind enough to refer to as a "very civil spoken gentleman," and took me under her wing generally. I was very grateful. My assailant, who had hitherto been under the impression that his witticisms were much appreciated by a large and admiring gallery, dried up completely and only recovered his spirits after a nap, from which he awoke only in time to alight at his destination. He then said "Good evening" quite politely, and added that if I were to step out of the train he would give me in charge for abusive language.—Pall Mall Gazette

A Doctor's Experience.

Dr. H. B. Hettinger, Indianapolis, Ind., says: "For several months after spraining my ankle I was severely afflicted with Rheumatism. I finally tried Detchon's 'Mystic Cure' for rheumatism, and in four days could walk without my cane; two bottles cured me sound and well. I take great pleasure in recommending the 'Mystic Cure' to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. Sold by J. E Mills, druggist, Middletown, N. Y.

The numerous cures of rheumatism by the use of the old standard blood-purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, show conclusively that it is an effective remedy, if not indeed the specific, for this most painful and persistent of maladies. What has cured others will also cure you.

Page's Climax Salve is truly the woman's friend, as no woman can have broken breasts or sore nipples while she uses this salve. Try it.

A Unique Prescription.

A Virginia gentleman, during an athletic exercise one day, felt a sudden pain, and fearing some internal injury sent for a negro living on the plantation who made pretensions to medical skill to prescribe for him.

The negro, having sagely investigated the case, prepared and administered a dose with the utmost confidence of a speedy cure.

No relief being obtained, however, a regular physician was sent for, who on arriving inquired of the negro what he had given.

Sambo promptly responded, "Rosin and alum, sir!"

"What did you give them for?" continued the doctor.

"Why," replied Sambo, "de alum to draw de parts togeder and de rosin to solder 'em."—Healthy Home.

Transformed.

"Ah, Augustus, if I could only really believe"—

"Oh, goodness! There is that horrid Mr. Jones coming up stairs."

"Quick! Hide under the table!"

"What is this frightful monster? Let me get out!"—New York World.

The Dear Little Cherub.

There are times when a little boy becomes a nuisance. At a hotel breakfast table a small boy said in a loud voice to his parent:

"Pa, what makes you smell the eggs before you eat them?"

"To see if they are good."

"But, pa, you can't see with your nose, can you?"

"For heaven's sake, boy, keep quiet. I smelt the egg to find out if it was good."

"But, pa, what do you want to smell the egg for? Can't you tell by tastin it if it ain't good?"—Texas Siftings.

Goes The Other Way.

"Begin at the bottom and work up, my boy," said the old gentleman. "That's the way to succeed in life."

"Yes," replied the young man thoughtfully, "but it doesn't work in the immediate instance."

"Why not?"

"I'm inventing a new style of toboggan."—Washington Star.

SMITH'S BILE BEANS

SAVED HER LIFE.

J. F. SMITH & Co., 255 Greenwich St., N. Y.

With pleasure I testify to the merits of your celebrated "Bile Beans." My wife, who suffered more or less for years past, particularly one year ago, when not expected to live. Her trouble was called Gall Stones, or hardening of the gall. On the 15th of July, 1889, I received the bottle of "Bile Beans" you forwarded to me. She gave them a thorough trial and has not been troubled with liver or stomach complaint since. She gives "Bile Beans" all the credit for her quite good health for the past 5 months. We have on hand nearly one bottle, but do not wish to be without them at any time, so please mail $1 worth for money enclosed. A. K. CLARK, Moravia, N. Y.

The market is full of cough mixtures, but one trouble with most of them is that when they do a little good the patient has to take so much that he gets to loath the taste. The Pineola Balsam is superior to other cough remedies because it is agreeable to the palate and its good effects are immediate. In a few days an ordinary cough is gone—altogether Bronchitis and asthma are more stubborn, but they too are cured by Ely's Pineola Balsam. A remedy worth trying. Twenty-five cents is all it cost.

A Bear in the Woods—New Telephone Line—The O. and W.'s Satisfactory Time Table—A New Paper—Leveling the Forests

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—The Colchester, Delaware county, nimrods think they have a bear in the woods.

—The telephone between Lowbeach, Rockland and Roscoe, is now in operation and works to perfection.

—The O. and W. Company cannot better its present time table by any change that it can possibly make. It would no doubt be advantageous to the local travel to have trains 5 and 6 make more frequent stops, but that would be to the detriment of through travel. Let it alone.

—M. J. Weyrauch, formerly editor and publisher of the Jeffersonville, Sullivan county, Record, has located at Sidney Center and will soon launch upon the perilous sea of journalism a new paper to be named the Delaware County Transcript.

—There are not less than three hundred wood choppers now at work every day from daylight to dark, between Livingston Manor and Walton, cutting wood for the acid factories. At this rate our hard wood forests will not last more than ten years and those who are fortunate enough to be able to let their timber stand and keep fire out of it will find that the timber on the stump will have quadrupled in value at that time.

Forest Fire Bills Needlessly Paid by Ulster County Towns.

For several years Ulster county towns have been paying bills for fighting fires. The discovery has just been made that these bills are not town charges but, if approved by the proper officers, are a charge against the State. It is also stated that many forest fires were started by men anxious to get the job of fighting the flames.

THE GOSHEN COURT HOUSE.

Improvements and Alterations Completed—A Commodious and Well Appointed Public Building.

From the Independent Republican,

The repairs and additions to the Court House, at Goshen, are completed and the building is again ready for holding of court. It is nearly a year since the fire destroyed a large portion of the interior, and during nearly the whole of that time the work of repairing and remodeling the rooms, constructing an addition to the main building and erecting a boiler house in the rear, has been in progress. The members of the Supervisors' Building Committee consisting of Messrs. Adams and Wilson, of Newburgh, and Durland, of Greenville, with Supervisor J. E. Wells as building supply committee, have intelligently discharged their duties during the progress of the work, and have shown such good judgment in planning and carrying it to completion that the people of Orange county may be justly proud of the Goshen Court House as it stands to-day.

The exterior of the building is painted in colors which predominated in the old Colonial days. The arrangement of the first floor has not been changed except by the addition of two rooms in the new part for the use of the Sheriff's family. All the rooms on the first floor have been newly painted and papered. The principal part of the work has been done in the second story, where is located the court room.

The room is 47x49.3 feet. A space 18x45-4 feet is inclosed by a massive railing and fitted up with modern seats for the accommodation of the audience attending court. The remainder of the room is reserved for the jurymen, court officers, lawyers, witnesses, etc. This portion of the room is covered by a handsome body Brussels carpet, more than 200 yards being used for the purpose.

The platforms on either side of the room, one for the Petit Jury and the other for the Grand Jury, are each surrounded by a handsome Georgia pine railing, finished in the natural wood. The witness box and the clerk's platform are also enclosed with the same style of railing. The furniture is all new and of the latest design. The woodwork and the side walls are nicely painted in buff and yellow tints, while the ceiling is handsomely papered to match the paint and furnishings. Elegant gas and electric light fixtures are a pleasing feature of this room Several of the officers of the Circuit Court have visited the Goshen court room within the last few days, and they all affirm that it is the most cosy and pleasing of any in the district.

From the rear of the court room a door leads into the new wing of the building. In this is fitted up a room 18x19 feet for the judge and other court officers. Adjoining is a bath room and a hallway with stairs leading to the lower floor. The floors are laid with Georgia pine, while the trimming is of white wood, the whole being oiled and varnished. The judges' room has a handsome oak mantel and furniture to match, and rich curtains adorn the windows.

The Petit Jury room remains the same as before except a door from it leads directly into the court room and new carpet and furniture have been purchased for it. On the opposite side of the upper hallway front is located the toilet room for general use during court terms, and this has been newly fitted up with improved appliances.

Between the jail building and the Court House a new boiler house 15x30 has been erected, and in it placed a new 40 horse power boiler for heating the buildings. The kitchen in the basement of the Court House has also received marked attention, and the cooking department of this institution is now well equipped with the necessary implements.

MORE RAILROAD TALK.

An Electric Line from Port Jervis to Kingston.

From the Kingston Freeman

A syndicate of railroad men who are alleged to have the backing of one or two other strong railroad organizations, are looking over a proposed route for an electric railroad that will connect Port Jervis, Monticello, Ellenville and Kingston. The plan proposed is to build a freight, passenger and express line between Port Jervis and Kingston, connecting villages that are now dependent upon inconveniently managed steam roads with a view to opening a new country now shut out from the markets by an inland location. It is urged that such a line as is proposed could be more economically managed, and the cost of building would be very much lessened on account of the expense saved in building a road bed. Prominent business men in Port Jervis, Monticello and Ellenville are represented in the syndicate which is now going over the proposed route.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

HER LETTER

TELLS A WOMAN'S STORY.

Written for Eyes of Other Women.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS]

There is inestimable pleasure in doing good to others, and joy in a grateful recognition of the act.

On the old York Road, Huntington Park, Philadelphia, dwells Miss M. Downs, whose portrait we give. She desires that her case may be stated as a means of benefiting others. She says: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of Kidney trouble, painful menstruations, and headaches. It is truly a wonderful medicine. I cannot describe my feelings before I took it The pain in my back was dreadful, and during menstruations the agony I suffered nearly drove me wild; and then my head would ache for a week, and now this is all over, thanks to your good remedy. I trust my testimonial will lead others to take it and be cured. They can find it at any drug store. Our druggist says the demand for it is very large, it is helping so many sickly women."
